

Carissa Swiss

Carissa, an assistant professor at Chestnut Hill College, is the Director and Discipline Chair for the Montessori Teacher Education Program at the College. She serves as a MACTE accreditor for Montessori Teacher Training Programs. A Montessori credentialed leader, Carissa brings a rich background as a Montessori leader and teacher to our work. Her local and national connections across the Montessori community, understanding of policy and regulations, and passion for quality Montessori programs bring strengths to the MW board.
