

Mark Conces

Mark is a long-standing board member with three adult children whose success he attributes to their Montessori education. He first became involved in promoting the Montessori curriculum while his children were at Wilmington Montessori School where he served on the board. His passion for promoting Montessori and ensuring it is available to more children is what keeps him involved today. Mark has been in a number of senior analytics and finance roles within the banking industry and currently works for Wells Fargo.