

E. McCrae Harrison

McCrae has a long history in the Montessori world in Delaware and nationally. Currently enjoying retirement, McCrae began her Montessori career at the Elementary workshop where she was the director and a teacher. McCrae transitioned to head up the Montessori Academy at Christina, Delaware's first public Montessori program, as the program director and teacher. McCrae is a member and former board member of the American Montessori Society, the Montessori Teachers Association of Delaware, Sussex Montessori School and the advisory board of First State Montessori Academy.